1. Part of the Entwurfsbuero Dessau VEB headed by Volz (fnu) was detached to establish an engineering office for the construction of the Junkers Werke. This new section was subordinate to Minister Bernd Weinberger.¹
2. Manager for the Junkers reconstruction works was Spott (fnu), formerly leading official at the Machine Building Ministry. B. C. Baede who had returned to Moscow was scheduled to become managing director of the works with Professor Guenther Bock as his deputy.
3. The 1953 investment sum was increased to 60,000,000 eastmarks. The planned high building which had been completed was scheduled to house the engineering office.

Comment: The Entwurfsbueros fuer Hoch-und Industriebau (Projecting comment: The Entwurfsbuero fuer Hoch- und Industrie-Offices for Superstructures and Industrial Buildings) were subordinate directly to the Projecting Main Administration of the Ministry for Reconstruction headed by Lothar Bolz on 1 January 1953 when the reorganization of the Ministry for Reconstruction was completed. The Entwurfsbuero fuer Hoch- und Industrie-bau Dessau was established in Dessau. The only projecting office detached to another ministry was the Entwurfsbuero Stralsund which was, however, detached before the Ministry for Reconstruction had been reorganized and was subordinated to the Ministry of the Interior. [redacted] the Entwurfsbuero Dessau [redacted] Main Department of Transportation Machine Construction of the Ministry for Transportation and Agricultural Machine Construction [redacted] has been confirmed at 35 Koethen-Strasse, Dessau.
